

St. Saiuour of Southwarke.

A rate of duties belonging to the Corporation of the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Saiuour of Southwarke, in the County of Surrye, aswell in the right of the said Corporation, as also in respect of their title to the Rectory of the said Parish, agreed vpon by the generall consent of the whole vestry, and confirmed by the Ordinary of this place, in Anno Domini 1613. As followeth, Viz.

Mariages with licence.

IMprimis, It is ordered and agreed that the Churchwardens shall haue for every couple that shall be married with licence. — viij. d.
And for the seruice of a Minister — iij. s.
And for the seruice of a Clarke — xij. d.
And for the seruice of a Sexton — vj. d.
Summe v. s. iiii. d.

Mariages without licence.

Item that every couple married without licence in the accustomed time of marriage shall pay to the Churchwardens — iij. d.
Item for the seruice of a Minister — xiiij. d.
Item for the seruice of a Clarke — viij. d.
Item for the seruice of a Sexton — iij. d.
Summe ij. s. vj. d.

Mariages without licence at extraordinary times.

Item every couple married at extraordinary times shall pay to the Churchwardens — vj. d.
For the seruice of a minister — xx. d.
And for the seruice of a clarke — x. d.
And for the seruice of a sexton — iij. d.
Summe iij. s. iij. d.

Offerings at weddings.

Item that the Churchwardens shall haue for every offering — xij. d.
And for the Minister — nihil
And for the Clarke — nihil
And for the Sexton — ij. d.
And for the conductor — ij. d.
Summe xvj. d.

Marriage of women out of the Parish.

For those women that shall be married out of the parish and did dwell in the parish the Churchwardens shall haue as above said.
For the seruice of a minister as above said
For the seruice of a clarke as above said
For the seruice of a sexton as above said

Certificat of banes asked.

The Churchwardens shall haue for the seruice of a minister for every certificat he shall make of the bands asked — xij. d.

Chrismas.

For every Chrismas the Churchwardens shall haue — j. d.

Churchings.

Item that the Churchwardens shall haue at every Churching — v. d.
And for the seruice of a Minister — ij. d.
And for the seruice of a clarke — ij. d.
And for the seruice of a Sexton — nihil

Burials in the Church.

Item that the Churchwardens shall haue for the ground for every man or woman that shall be buried in the church, with an afternoones knell, or without it — xx. s.
And for the best blacke cloth — xij. d.
And for the second blacke cloth — viij. d.

And for the third hearsecloth — iij. d.
And for the worst cloth — ij. d.
And for the seruice of a Minister if he fetch the corps — xvi. d.
But if he fetch not the corps — viij. d.
And for the seruice of a Clarke if he fetch the corps — xii. d.
If he fetch it not — vi. d.
And for the seruice of a Sexton if he fetch the corps — viii. d.
If he fetch not the corps — iiii. d.
The grauemaker — xvi. d.
The conductor — iiii. d.
The foure bearers whether they beare the corps or not, so they giue attendance — xvi. d.

Burials in the Chauncel.

Item for the ground for every man or woman buried in the chauncell with a knell or without the churchwardens shall haue — xxvi. s. viii. d.
And for the seruices of a Minister and rest of the officers as above said.

Burials of strangers.

Item for the burial of strangers the Churchwardens shall haue double duties, and every other officer double also.

Burials of children in the Church.

Item for every childe buried in the Church being vnder the age of twelue yeres, the churchwardens shall haue — vi. s. viii. d.
In the chauncell — x. s.
For the seruice of a Minister if he fetch the corps — xii. d.
If he fetch it not — viii. d.
For the seruice of a clarke if he fetch the corps — viii. d.
If he fetch it not — vi. d.
For the seruice of a sexton if he fetch the corps — vi. d.
If he fetch it not — iiii. d.
The grauemaker — xii. d.
For such as shall die in this parish and be buried in an other parish, shall be paid such like duties to this parish as if hee or she had been buried here in like manner.

Burials in any Churchyard next the Church.

Item the Churchwardens shall haue for the ground for every man or woman that shall be buried with a coffin in any churchyard next the church — ii. s.
Without a coffin — xvi. d.
For the seruice of a Minister if he fetch the corps — xii. d.
If he fetch not the corps — viii. d.
For the seruice of a Clarke if he fetch the corps — viii. d.
If he fetch it not — iiii. d.
For the seruice of a Sexton if he fetch the corps — vi. d.
If he fetch it not — iiii. d.
The grauemaker if there be a coffin — viii. d.
If no coffin — iiii. d.
The foure bearers as afore said.
For the clothes as afore said.

Burials of a childe in either of the said Churchyards next the Church.

For the ground buried with a coffin, without a coffin — viii. d.
Without a coffin — iiii. d.

For the ministers seruice if he fetch the corps — viii. d.
If he fetch it not — iiii. d.
For the clarkes seruice if he fetch the corps — viii. d.
If he fetch it not — iiii. d.
For the Sextons seruice if he fetch the corps — iiii. d.
If he fetch it not — ii. d.
The grauemaker if there be a coffin — iiii. d.
If no coffin — ii. d.

Burials in the Colledge Churchyard of man or woman.

For the ground if there be a coffin — xii. d.
If no coffin — viii. d.
For the Ministers seruice if he fetch the corps — xii. d.
If he fetch it not — viii. d.
For the Clarkes seruice if he fetch the corps — viii. d.
If he fetch it not — iiii. d.
For the Sextons seruice if he fetch the corps — vi. d.
If he fetch it not — iiii. d.
The grauemaker if there be a coffin — viii. d.
If no coffin — iiii. d.
The foure bearers as afore said.
For the clothes as afore said.

Burials in the Colledge Churchyard of a childe.

For the ground if there be a coffin — iiii. d.
If no coffin — ii. d.
For the Ministers seruice and other officers as afore said in the other Churchyards.

The Churchwardens duties for the Bels.

For an afternoones knell with the great Bell, if the party be not buried in the Church — iiii. s.
For an houres knell with the Lady bell — viii. d.
For an houres knell with a lesser bell — viii. d.
To the Sexton for an afternoones knell with the great bell — iiii. s.
For an houres knell with the Lady bell — viii. d.
For an houres knell with a lesser bell — viii. d.
For the passing bell if it be with the great Bell — xii. d.
With the Lady bell — viii. d.
With the lesser Bell — iiii. d.
To the Minister for every child baptized Item the Clarke is to haue for registering the name of the childe baptized — ii. d.
Item, it is ordered that the grauemaker shall make every man and womans graue (if there be a coffin) siue foot and an halfe deep if the ground will serue, if without a coffin, foure foot & a halfe. Every chिल्ds graue with a coffin foure foot deepe, without a coffin three foot and a halfe.
For burial of the poore of of the Colledge and all other ordinary weckely pensioners of the poore of this parish — nihil
Sawing to the grauemaker and bearers two pence a peece.
Item it is ordered that the Clarke shall make a bill of the charges of every buriall, and shall deliuer the same bill to the party that is to pay the charges if it be demanded.
Also it is ordered that the Clarke shall bring every such Bill to one of the Churchwardens, to the end the Churchwarden may set his hand thereto, that to the party may know it to be a true bill.